To Our Subscribers From and after the first day of December the price of the DAILT NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, de-livered at the residences of subscribers, will be ten cents per week, or forty-five cents per month.

In consequence of the great drought which has prevailed for months past in the Middle and Rorthern States, the paper mills worked by water-power in those flates have translated but little paper, and some have stopped altegether, making it impossible for those worked by steam power to enpply the demand. Much paper ha ousequently been imported at heavy cost.

In consequence of this fact the price of pape and, since we reduced the price of the has increased, since we reduced the price of the REFURLICAN in July last, over Afty per can: We are therefore compelled to increase the price to meet this unprecedented rise in the price of paper, but hope that it will be easly temporary and that we shall be able to resume the old price Иочения 28, 1865.

THE WASHINGTON MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

[GIRGULAR.]

WASHINGTON, December, 1985.

Every one complains of the extortion and imposition practiced upon the people of this city in the matter of foat, but no one proposes a remedy. A number of gentlemen associated with us out a valuable colliery in Schupikili county, Pennaylvania, producing now over 60,000 tons a year, of the best quality of white and red ash antractic coal. The machinery and appliances are complete. Upon this property we propose to organize a company with a capital of $500,000, divided into thirty thousand shares of $10 each. The holder of each share of stock to be entitled to a ton of coal each year at prime cost, and to his share of the profits on the sale of coal to cut-side parties.

his share of the proots on the sale value and ide parties.

The first cost of coal at present rates of transportation, delivered to the door of the consumer, would be $0; at the usual rates the price would be from six to seven dollars.

A party owaing ten abares would pay for it $100. This would entitle him to ten tons at cost-any $3 less than dealers' retail prices—$50,000 tons sold outside at a profit of $2 per ton would be.

$60,000
